

Looking for ways to develop and refresh your skills?

Find out more about our free learning resources and smartphone apps

You can use our free and easy to use resource from a computer, tablet (like an iPad) or smartphone. Here is a selection of resources that we recommend for people working in early learning and child care.

Engaging with children and young people

iPad, Android

This app helps you engage effectively with children and young people, covering topics like self-esteem, positive relationships and Getting it Right for Every Child (GIRFEC).

Childhood practice simulator

Web

Our interactive resource gives you the chance to practice your skills in real-life scenarios to help develop your knowledge and skills of childhood practice.

learn.sssc.uk.com

Multi-professional practice simulator
Web

This interactive resource focuses on the various professionals involved in children's lives and allows you to explore decisions and outcomes from different viewpoints.

Modern apprenticeships: Core skills (children and young people)

iPad, Android

Supports you to undertake a modern apprenticeship in social services children and young people by providing knowledge about core skills.

Jargon and acronym buster (JAB)
Web

This reference tool can help explain terms and abbreviations often used in social services.